

Funded by
the European Union

Enhancement of entrepreneurship skills among women to provide gender equality and employability for citizens of Uzbekistan. (EMPOWER)

Project Number: 101129076 —
EMPOWER—ERASMUS-EDU-2023-CBHE

Women Empowerment through Education

Case study: Building Confidence by Empowering Decision-Making

Dr. Odilova, CAU Business School

Event: Lecture at Sujatha Girls High School, Hyderabad, India

Date: August 23, 2024

TECHNISCHE
UNIVERSITÄT
DRESDEN

"Funded by the European Union. Views and opinions expressed are however those of the author(s) only and do not necessarily reflect those of the European Union. Neither the European Union nor the granting authority can be."

Funded by
the European Union

Sujatha Girls High School

Sujatha Girls High School, located in Hyderabad, India, was established in 1966 by the visionary educationist Mrs. Sita Jai Singh. Known for its commitment to quality education, the school has grown significantly from its humble beginnings with 40 students and 5 teachers to a renowned institution with over 3,500 students and 150 teachers. The school emphasizes character building and academic excellence, preparing students for the Secondary School Certificate (S.S.C.) Examination. It is recognized by the Government of Andhra Pradesh and operates under the Sujatha Arts & Science Academies

"Funded by the European Union. Views and opinions expressed are however those of the author(s) only and do not necessarily reflect those of the European Union. Neither the European Union nor the granting authority can be."

Funded by
the European Union

Today, 62 million girls around the world are not in school.
What will the world look like
when we educate all girls?

"Funded by the European Union. Views and opinions expressed are however those of the author(s) only and do not necessarily reflect those of the European Union. Neither the European Union nor the granting authority can be held responsible for them."

Funded by
the European Union

What Happens If We Let Girls Learn?

She can lift her country out of poverty. If India enrolled 1% more girls in secondary school, their GDP would rise by $5.5 billion.

She can feed her family and her country. Investing in girls' education could boost agricultural output in Sub-Saharan Africa by 25%.

She can increase her income. For every year a girl stays in school, her income can increase by 15 to 25%.

She will invest in future generations. Educated women invest 90% of their income into their family.

She will send her children to school, continuing the cycle of education. Educated mothers are more than twice as likely to send their children to school.

"Funded by the European Union. Views and opinions expressed are however those of the author(s) only and do not necessarily reflect those of the European Union. Neither the European Union nor the granting authority can be."

Funded by
the European Union

How does education build confidence in women and girls?

- Encourages self-expression and leadership
- Provides knowledge and skills
- Fosters a sense of achievement

"Funded by the European Union. Views and opinions expressed are however those of the author(s) only and do not necessarily reflect those of the European Union. Neither the European Union nor the granting authority can be."

The decision-making process

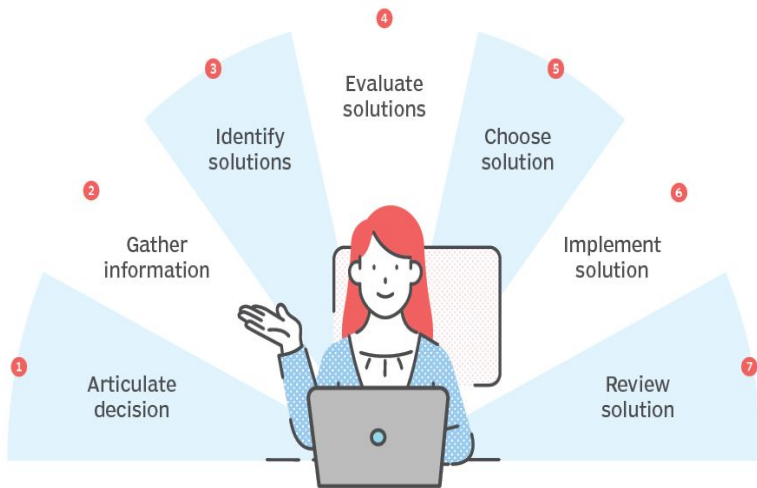

ILLUSTRATION: JONGHO SHIN/GETTY IMAGES

©2024 TECHTARGET. ALL RIGHTS RESERVED. TechTarget

- Critical thinking and problem-solving skills
- Informed choices in personal and professional life
- Greater autonomy and independence

Source: Google Images

"Funded by the European Union. Views and opinions expressed are however those of the author(s) only and do not necessarily reflect those of the European Union. Neither the European Union nor the granting authority can be."

Funded by
the European Union

- Economic empowerment
- Health improvements
- Social and political participation

Successful women globally due to education

Source: Google Images

"Funded by the European Union. Views and opinions expressed are however those of the author(s) only and do not necessarily reflect those of the European Union. Neither the European Union nor the granting authority can be."

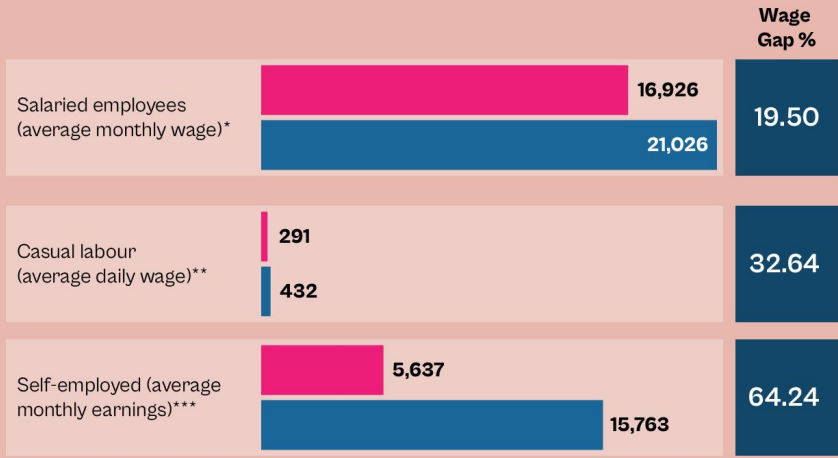

Economic Opportunities

Gender Wage Gap: Disparity Persists Across Types Of Work, Self-Employed Men Earn 60% More Than Women

April- June 2023 (Rs)

Female Male

*In preceding calendar month by employees in current weekly status Engaged in works other than public works
During the last 30 days from self-employment work in current weekly status
Source: Periodic Labour Force Survey (PLFS) 2022-23

the Secretariat

In India, many women work in the informal sector and choose home-based jobs to balance household duties, influenced by socio-cultural factors such as unequal domestic work distribution, gender skill and education gaps, limited digital literacy, mobility restrictions, and lack of workplace support.

"Funded by the European Union. Views and opinions expressed are however those of the author(s) only and do not necessarily reflect those of the European Union. Neither the European Union nor the granting authority can be."

Funded by
the European Union

Health Benefits

- Girls' education delays early marriage and leads to smaller families
- Educated girls are also more likely to seek healthcare for themselves and their families.

"Funded by the European Union. Views and opinions expressed are however those of the author(s) only and do not necessarily reflect those of the European Union. Neither the European Union nor the granting authority can be."

Funded by
the European Union

Social Participation

- Active involvement in community and politics
- Leadership roles
- Advocacy for rights and equality

"Funded by the European Union. Views and opinions expressed are however those of the author(s) only and do not necessarily reflect those of the European Union. Neither the European Union nor the granting authority can be."

Funded by
the European Union

Q&A

"Funded by the European Union. Views and opinions expressed are however those of the author(s) only and do not necessarily reflect those of the European Union. Neither the European Union nor the granting authority can be."